Arrest, confinement to room or College limits, and rediction to ranks of officers and non-commissioned officers. III. Suspension, dismission with privileges of resigning, and public dismission. IV. Expulsion. Only the President and Faculty can award punishments. Those of first and second grades are given by the President, and those of the third and fourth grades by the Faculty. The discipline has for its chief aim and object to secure, with as little severity as possible, prompt and cheerful obedience to, and respectful, quiet demeanor towards the College authorities, orderly conduct in the section rooms, dormitory, mess-hall, chapel, and in the fields and shops. The military feature is the most effective means of enforcing and securing discipline. The company and battalion organizations give to the officers and non-commissioned officers acquaintance with the proper exercise of authority, and students acquire habits of obedience. This feature is made to conduce to the furtherance of the principal aim and object of the College--its industrial feature. In order to maintain discipline, do justice to all, clearly discriminate between the faithful and unfaithful, and render a correct report of conduct, class-standing, etc., at the end of each half term, the attention of the patrons of the College is respectfully directed to the following regulations governing absences, and their co-operation is earnestly required: I. After regularly matriculating, no student, except on recommendation of the surgeon, will be permitted to go home or elsewhere, except at such time as the Faculty may...
