Language: English . Brand New Book. Stretched round the Cornish coast o er dale and hill The South West Coastal Path means no man ill Vast sandy beaches children s dreams to fill While surfers ride the breaker s foaming mill And Jack heads for the sand dunes with his Jill John and Phil decide to walk the Cornish coast during the 1999 total eclipse of the sun. They travel to Devon by train - the wrong coast in the wrong county. Such unconventional planning continues when they arrange to take turns going back to London despite possibly missing the eclipse. Ups and downs of the walk are reflected in their fortunes - gear goes missing and Phil suffers from horrendous blisters while John chats up anything in a skirt. John is sorry for Phil when he loves and loses, but wonders if he has a pact with the Devil when he displays super-human strength on the climbs. Ruined tin mines, the struggling fishing and tourism industries, but friendly and resilient locals, form the back-drop to this true account of two men on...
