These adventurers had music in their souls. They possessed temperaments of a poetic nature, and loved the great, wide vistas of the plains; the scream of the eagle; the bark of the coyote; the splash and gurgle of crystal rivers which plunged in a reckless course between the shelving sides of narrow canons. Their eyes reveled in the skies of the golden West, and in the sight of plateaus decked with those flowers of a million colors which clothe the mountain valleys in the hot months of summer. Their senses were keen; their love of the unrestrained life in camp and log cabin...
