Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Review of the References to the Hortus Malabaricus: Of Henry Van Rhee and Van Draakenstein Several years ago I attempted to ascertain the names of the Plants which have been figured by Rhee and Rumphius in the Hortus Malabaricus and Herbarium Amboinense, and my late residence in London has enabled me to find materials, which nothing but the libraries and collections of the Metropolis can furnish, for settling many of the doubtful synonyms. I have here arranged the notes and remarks thus collected on the former of these Works, and the Hortus Malabaricus has now been so generally cited in all works on Botany for nearly a century and a half, that this Review can hardly fail to be of some use, particularly to the Students of Oriental Botany. Opposite to the number of each plate I have given, so far as I could collect them, the various synonymous names of the species to which the figure belongs, but more particularly those for which it has been quoted, and the names of the authors, when...
