Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Banquet of the German Rep; Central Committee: Of the City and County of New York, December 3rd, 1875 The German Republican Central Committee of the City of New York met for the first time, during the campaign for free speech - free soil - free men and Fremont. It was formed chiefly by those German refugees, who - in 1848-49 - defeated in their brave struggle for liberty in their native country, transferred their allegiance to the American Republic. By nature as well as by education, implacable enemies of oppression in every shape, they enrolled themselves in the ranks of the party opposed to slavery in this country. And there is little doubt that the bulk of the German immigrants would have joined the Republican party, had they not been misled by the name Democracy borne by the opposing party, which in their German homes is synonymous with liberty and selfgovernment. It is the object of the German Republican Committee, thus called into existence to recall their countrymen from the ranks of the false to the true democratic party, and to afford to such of them as were unable to acquire a knowledge of the English language on account of their arrival in this country at a period of life when the struggle for existence engrossed their time and all their efforts, facilities to take part in political discussions in their native tongue. The German Republican Central Committee has thus, through the agency of its thoroughly disciplined district associations, contributed largely to the success of the Republican party. Though others faltered, it never swerved from its loyalty; not even when leaders, elated at their success,...
