Empirical Psychology: Or the Science of Mind from Experience (Classic Reprint)

By Laurens P Hickok

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Empirical Psychology: Or the Science of Mind From Experience It is the design, in the present work, to represent the human mind as it stands in the clear light of consciousness. We go to our own inward experience to find the facts, both of the single mental phenomena and of their connection with each other. An Empirical Psychology is here alone attempted, and in this we cannot proceed according to the order of a pure science. The necessary and universal ideas, which must determine all mental activity in every capacity, in order that these capacities may become intelligible to us in their conditional laws of operation, are not now first assumed, and then carried forward to a completed system by a rigid a priori analysis and speculation in pure thought. Such a work has already been accomplished in a psychology thoroughly rational. The subjective idea which must condition and expound all intelligence has been attained, and then the objective law which controls all the facts of an acting intelligence has been determined to be in exact...
