Ian Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a daily action guide for the person who has been longing to grab life by the horns and become an entrepreneur. Entrepreneurship is a mindset, a skillset, and a big set of problems for people who don't know their way to success -- this book is out to save the millions of people who run into those problems every year. Over a 7-month period, this book gives daily action steps to motivate, educate, inspire, and prepare entrepreneurs for the fulfillment of success that can only come when you respond to your deep inner calling and go for it. Each day's activities will take between 5 and 15 minutes. Through this daily journey, you'll be: - taking a personal development workshop - getting a clear sense of your life's purpose - building a team of collaborators to help you - overcoming fears and procrastination - gaining access to free additional on-line tools Whether it's a non-profit you want to start, a product you dream of bringing to the world, a service you feel called to provide, or a leadership role you want to take on, this book helps you step to the edge of what's possible . . . and then keep going. The Art of Inspired Action: vision + service + action plan = the fulfilling life you're longing to create.
