RevMedia. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 46 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.3in. x 0.1in. The Wood family went to a church I pastored for a number of years. One day Brother Gary was preaching in a service and realized that the building we were meeting in once was a pharmacy. Years ago, when Angel was a very small girl, a very sick little girl, Gary and Deena came here to buy prescriptions for her because she had severe allergies. The stage he was preaching from was once where the pharmacist dispensed the drugs that saved her life. It used to have a sign that read RX prescriptions and now it says JESUS IS LORD. We watched Angel grow from a little girl into a grown woman of God. She is healed by the power of God and all she says comes from the depths of her heart. She is a sweet, anointed woman of God. We appreciate the opportunity to write these words about Angel. Pastor Steve ODonohoe Grace Community Church Clear Lake City, TX Angel Marie Wood has been my special friend for many years now, and she is a tremendous blessing to me. She prays for me and often drops me notes to let me know she is praying. I thank God for her, and for the way her life has turned around, simply because her mother and dad would not let her remain the way she was when she was born. The Word of God has brought Angel out of a life of despair and sadness, to a joyous life of blessing and helping others. This book will bless you and help you and inspire you, and especially give courage and hope to those who are fighting some of the same circumstances. Thank God Jesus hasnt changed, and...
