Foundations of Love, Two Become One is a true renderittrue verse of a husband s love expressed to his wife. What she spoke into his singular life had to written. In form, in dynamic fashion so she would know that his love was boundless and forever true. He could not just speak it, what if she had heard it all before? For fear she would not hear his patient and kind heart, he could not say it passionately enough, because sometimes words get choked in the airwaves of everyday life. So he spoke it to the pages, like they did in the ancient days of courtship, so she could read it at her leisure, to decipher and decode the decision he had made to love her always. She was the basis of the beats in his heart and poetically the right words fell upon the parchment from his pen and like rain falling from the clouds a pure sense of what he felt for her poured into her eyes and into the stream of her soul, and...
