Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject Politics - International Politics - Region: USA, grade: 2, University of Bonn, course: Amerikanische Auenpolitik vom Golfkrieg bis zum Konflikt in Afghanistan, language: English, abstract: The Basis of this dissertation is the American Foreign Policy toward China after the Tiananmen Square massacre and the end of the Cold War. What is the role of the Executive Branch (Bush Sen. administration, Clinton administration) and what does the Congress have to say in formulating and affecting U. S. policy towards China Is there a clear work-sharing between the two constituencies How do they add to each other and how do they hinder each other What is the role of Interest Groups in influencing policy making towards China Does it benefit the mutual interests of each, the United States and China or is the benefit only one-sided if not to say to the interest of a third player (the interest group) in the relationship. How do Interest Groups influence Congress and how do they confirm U. S. -China policy Will the United States and China find a way to...

Reviews

The publication is easy to read through and is comprehensible. It is actually loaded with wisdom and knowledge. It has been printed in an extremely simple way and is particularly simple right after I finished reading through this pdf where it actually modified me, affected the way I believe.

-- Ms. Clementina Cole V

This is the very best publication I have read until now. It is definitely simplified but shocking within the fifty percent of the pdf. You may like how the article writer creates this pdf.
