By Quain Professor of English Language and Literature David Trotter, Stacia Freeman

Awaken Media, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Designed to accompany the IN PLAIN SIGHT documentary on sex trafficking in the United States and IN PLAIN SIGHT music album, this 31 Day Devotional and Group Study Guide will help you understand and embrace God's heart for the vulnerable and broken in our world. Although the workbook can be used simply as a personal devotional, it is designed for a group to use as a five-week study. (Foreword by Natalie Grant) Starting with the viewing of the documentary at a public screening or as a group, each of the five group study guides are followed up with daily devotions. Five Small Group Study Sessions - Week 1 - The group watches the IN PLAIN SIGHT documentary and utilizes the discussion questions provided. - Weeks 2-5 - The group reads through Scriptures, answers study questions, shares their personal learnings from that week's devotional, and worships with the songs from the IN PLAIN SIGHT music album. Daily Devotions The daily devotional allows individuals to continue their learning in between meetings or by simply working through the...
