Excerpt from American Colonization Society: Addresses Delivered at Its Later Annual Meeting, in Washington, D. C Ladies and Gentlemen: I have been unexpectedly requested by the Executive Committee to occupy the time, this evening, which had been allotted to one or more speakers, who have failed to attend. I cannot do so more profitably than by saying a few words touching the condition and prospects of the Colonization cause. The question is constantly asked, What are you doing - how many emigrants are you sending to Africa? And the invariable reply is, We are doing little or nothing - we are sending few if any emigrants; and yet, never has the success of our scheme appeared more certain than at the present time. The paucity of emigrants and the smallness of our collections are susceptible of easy explanation; so, too, are the grounds of our unhesitating confidence in the future. We are engaged in a contest unparalleled in the history of the world; and the prominence which it has given to the subject of slavery, and the...
